

Anne Anderson &lt;awanderson@mail.usf.edu&gt;

---

Notes from Anne Anderson's Committee Meeting 10/17/16

1 message

---

Anne Anderson <awanderson@mail.usf.edu>

Sat, Oct 29, 2016 at 2:12 PM

To: Jenifer Schneider <jschneid@usf.edu>, Thomas Crisp <crisptho@gmail.com>, "Dennis, Danielle" <Dennis@usf.edu>, "King, Jim" <jking9@usf.edu>, Jeffrey Kromrey <kromrey@usf.edu>

Thank you for meeting with me almost two weeks ago.

We agreed this has become a dissertation about developing a method of interpreting editorial cartoons (as cross-modal, contextualized, non-linear narratives) rather than a dissertation about the cartoons themselves.

Once the dissertation is complete, I plan to use the method to complete the work I first proposed -- but, at this point, trying to do both has become unwieldy and time-prohibitive. Therefore, I am dropping the Disney connection entirely, am not collecting data on or analyzing any further cartoons, and am focusing solely on the method.

I have attached an outline of what I plan, and plan to have either Chapter 2 or Chapter 3 to Jenifer before Thanksgiving.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,

Anne

--

---

Anne W. Anderson
Literacy Studies
University of South Florida, Tampa

We read to know we are not alone. ~ C. S. Lewis

We do not write in order to be understood; we write in order to understand. ~ C. S. Lewis

OutlineCROMENDADissertation.2016.102216.docx

180K